FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MAVERICK BLUES AND SOUL ARTIST AL "COFFEE" MCDANIEL RELEASES
ANOTHER INDEPENDENT ALBUM

TAMPA, FL - June 11, 2007 - CPA Records announced today the release of the latest album by featured recording artist Al "Coffee" McDaniel, "Blues In My Shoes." This phenomenal CD will be available nationwide on July 29th and consists of 14 enticing tracks, with songs ranging from traditional blues, Chicago style blues, Texas blues, mixed in with a nice touch of R&B.

McDaniel has successfully accompanied himself on this awesome CD with two of the most recognizable names in the music industry, legendary producer/songwriter/drummer, Narada Michael Walden, and blues great, guitarist/keyboardist/songwriter, Lucky Peterson. With this level of incredible future hall of fame artists joining AL "Coffee" McDaniel on this project, "Blues In My Shoes," it has genuine grammy awards potential.

This CD, "Blues In My Shoes," introduces McDaniel's up-tempo blues stylings, mid to slow tempo, as well as some funky and R&B styles. He even touches on some Texas style blues, and some cool traditional style blues. The variety of styles on this release makes it a complete and enjoyable blues experience. He masters various genres of music in a unique and tasteful style that identifies him as a refreshing artist.

McDaniel's eclectic styles are reminiscent of B.B. King, Barry White, Marvin Gaye, and Lou Rawls. His smooth and rich baritone voice is a driving force behind the emotions, passions, and energy that he expresses. His soulful guitar riffs display his musicality and his uniqueness as a seasoned musician. McDaniel's ranging styles on the guitar, from jazz to blues, give him an unlimited ability of musical genres to play, and classify him as a rare artist in today's music industry.
