SENSATIONAL BLUES AND SOUL ARTIST AL "COFFEE" MCDANIEL RELEASES ANOTHER INDEPENDENT ALBUM

TAMPA, FL – November, 15, 2010 - CPA Records announced today the release of the latest album by featured recording artist, Al "Coffee" McDaniel, "Sole Music." This phenomenal CD will be available nationwide on December 3rd, and consists of 12 enticing tracks, with songs ranging from traditional blues, Smooth Jazz, Southern Soul, one original (Oh Jeannie), mixed in with a nice touch of R&B.

This CD, "Sole Music," introduces AL Coffee's up-tempo blues stylings, mid to slow tempo, as well as some funky R&B styles. Here is a CD that will have you dancing from the start of the first cut, a Ray Charles tune, "I've Got A Woman." It is followed by an old favorite, "Papa got A Brand New Bag," song originally by James Brown. McDaniel says about this CD: "The songs on this project were chosen in hope of keeping the legacy alive that these fabulous artists left with us. (Ray Charles, Barry white, Otis Redding, Michael Jackson, Billy Paul, Burt Bacharach, & the Casinos.) This music will be with us for a very long time. My desire in this project is to keep the spirit, passion, integrity, and the identity that these phenomenal artists left with us."

In all of the tunes, McDaniel has maintained the spirit, passion, identity, but most of all, the integrity instilled by the Masters of Soul. McDaniel is at his best in voice and song, while strumming hot up-tempo guitar licks throughout the CD. It is a most pleasurable musical journey through the land of blues and R&B, thanks to McDaniel and friends.
